It encompasses three main federal economic immigration programs: the Federal Skilled Worker Program (FSWP), the Federal Skilled Trades Program (FSTP), and the Canadian Experience Class (CEC). Applicants are assessed based on a points-based system, known as the Comprehensive Ranking

System (CRS), which awards points for factors such as age, education, work experience, language proficiency (English and/or French), and adaptability. Candidates with higher CRS scores are invited to apply for permanent residence. This system prioritizes individuals who are most likely to successfully integrate into the Canadian labor market and society. Understanding your eligibility and maximizing your CRS score is crucial for a successful Express Entry application.

Provincial Nominee Programs (PNPs): Tailored Opportunities

Each Canadian province and territory has its own Provincial Nominee Program (PNP) designed to attract immigrants who meet specific local labor market needs. These programs offer a diverse range of streams, catering to various skills and occupations. For example, a province might have a stream for healthcare professionals or tech workers, or even for entrepreneurs looking to start a business. A provincial nomination can significantly boost your Express Entry score, giving you a stronger chance of receiving an Invitation to Apply (ITA).
