The opening stanza, "Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? / I see a Red Bird looking at me," sets the pattern. The brown bear observes a red bird, and then the red bird asks the question, "Red Bird, Red Bird, What Do You See?" This creates a delightful loop of observation and interaction, encouraging children to pay attention to both the colors and the animals.

The Repeating Pattern: Building Predictability and Confidence

The true genius of Martin Jr.'s text lies in its unwavering adherence to a predictable pattern. Each page features a new animal and its corresponding color, followed by the same question.
